2. How-to Articles for Foundation & TSWG website – Lee is working on these
3. FFF – Skein, Garment and Fiber competition – be thinking about something to enter
4. Next Step Topics – for May 15th Fiber and yarn identification and yardage calculation was selected
 - a. Software
 - b. Finishing
 - c. Book and pattern interpretation
 - d. Weaving to wear
 - e. Different loom styles
 - f. Weaving structures (twill, overshot, etc.)
 - g. Weaving tartans
 - h. Tricks of the trade

New Business:

1. Northumberland Elementary - 4th graders visit will be May 31st – more volunteers are always needed, let us know if you are available. Judy and Lynn are available to do spinning and Tom, Sandi, and possibly Melinda for weaving
2. Grandparent's camp – our spinning and weaving day will be Friday July 12th. We decided we will do wall hangings again and a 2nd learn and take home project will be cardboard looms
3. As a thank you to Mark and Bev for our new signs, we will give each of them a $25 gift certificate to use in the Café or shop
4. If you have extra weaving equipment or are looking for additional equipment you can post a notice on the bulletin board or let Kathy post it on our web site. Of course come hang out in the studio and share with each other there will also work!
5. There is still a good workshop selection available for MAFA, registration continues to May 31.
6. Check out our web site and if ordering from the Woolery your link through our site will mean a little of your purchase money will come back to us. www.tavernspinweave.org
7. We discussed the possibility of a spinning workshop with Patsy Zawistoski as well as bringing an inspirational speaker to the Tavern. Tom will get the information on an exceptional gentleman he knows of.

Next meeting will be: June 5, 2019
